EXPLORE THE WINES OF SLOVENIA

Slovenia’s wines can match the best in the world and are the pride and joy of Slovenes. We are offering the colorful palette of rose, white and red wines, ranging from the tender and fresh to rich wines of full taste, including aromatic, smooth and sparkling wines. Let us introduce you the excellent wines, culinary delights and historical sites of our diverse country.

Day 1: LJUBLJANA
- Arrival to Ljubljana airport and transfer to Ljubljana
- Visit of the capital with the old part of the town
- Dinner at one of the renowned restaurants
- Overnight at a 4* hotel in Ljubljana

Day 2: GORIŠKA BRDA – PIRAN - PORTOROŽ
- Goriška Brda, with the most diverse topography. The entire region is suitable for production of quality wines, among which white wines stand out with numerous world-recognized certificates of excellence. The most important wines are: Rebula, Chardonnay, Sauvignon Verde, Pinot Grigio...
- Dobrovo – wine cellar with wine tasting. The wines will be served with excellent smoked ham and cheese.
- One of the most renowned cellars - Kristančič, smaller, family owned cellar, but with wines represented in famous restaurants all over the world, such as Ducas in New York. Among their best wines are the Big White and the Big Red - you will have the privilege to try them both.
- Short stop at the typical small village of the area, Štanjel.
- Dinner at a local restaurant in the picturesque town of Piran by the coast.
- Overnight at a 4* hotel in Portorož.

Day 3: KOPER – POSTOJNA – OTOČEC
- The cellar of Vina Koper. This area is also known as The Istria of Slovenia with the wines: Refošk, Cabernet Sauvignon, Chardonnay...
- Postojna Cave in the Karst region and lunch next door.
- Dolenjska – The story of cviček at Matjaž’s home.
- Dinner and accommodation in Otočec, with its historical castle on the Krka River.

Day 4: NOVO MESTO – RUDOLF’S RAFT – BELA KRAJINA
- Visit of the old town centre of Novo mesto
- Rudolf’s raft on the Krka River with wine tasting. The light red wine Cviček with fresh fruity bouquet is the synonym of Dolenjska.
- Afternoon visit of Bela krajina. The wines of the area are blends, the most famous being Metliška Črnila - rich in extract and velvety. Beside the reds there are also the whites, such as Beli Pinot, Sauvignon, Chardonnay and Renski Rizling.
- The tasting at the family owned cellar Šturm, whose wines have won some of the prestigious awards.
- Historical museum of Bela krajina.
- Return to Otočec, special dinner at the castle and overnight.

Day 5 : ISTENIČ CELLAR – PTUJ - LENDAVA
- Sparkling wines of Istenič family. You will taste these prestigious wines at the cellar. The most precious awards are the three Prix d’excellence in Paris, gold medal in Verona and a double champion title in 2005 in Ljubljana and Gornja Radgona. Tasting and snacks.
- Next stop is the nature wonder of “repnica”, where the wine is kept in special old caves. Wine tasting.
- Ptuj, the oldest town in Slovenia surrounded by the wine growing hills of Slovenske Gorice and Haloze.” Ptuj prides itself on the oldest wine cellar in Slovenia.
- Lunch at the restaurant with local specialties.
- Northeast part of Slovenia with visit of the chapel of Holly Trinity and next tasting at the House of Wines Čuk. The dinner will follow the tasting.
- Accommodation at nearby Lendava Spa.

Day 6 : RADGONSKA GORICE – GOLDEN HILL – LJUBLJANA
- The sparkling wines at Radgonske Gorice, where first “champagne” was made in 1852. Presentation of the cellar and wine tasting.
- Stop for lunch at “The Golden Hill”, idyllic location above the round hills and vineyards.
- Return to Ljubljana.
- Those with the late afternoon flight have the transfer to the airport.
- The rest will enjoy one more night in Ljubljana and the transfer to the airport will be arranged the next day.